

Working With Others & Satisfying Others Checklists

Working With Others

- Situational Ingredient #3
Working within a community base of supportive people, groups, and organizations
- Organizational Ingredient #1
Drawing from different backgrounds, skills, and knowledge
- Organizational Ingredient #2
Maintaining a shared agenda with a clear vision
- Organizational Ingredient #4
Choosing one person to pull all the pieces together
- Organizational Ingredient #8
Trusting and listening to seasoned participants
- Organizational Ingredient #9
Surviving conflict between group members
- Financial Ingredient #1
Raising enough money to get started and keep going
- Financial Ingredient #2
Investing in effective management and staff
- Relationship Ingredient #2
Building on relationships between group members past and present

For individual spectacular success,
adapt ingredients as necessary.

Satisfying Others

- Situational Ingredient #1
Encompassing a variety of concerns
- Situational Ingredient #2
Fitting actions into the current political context
- Organizational Ingredient #5
Giving people reasons to keep coming back
- Organizational Ingredient #6
Changing to meet changing needs
- Financial Ingredient #3
Satisfying needs and interests
- Financial Ingredient #4
Creating success for others
- Emotional Ingredient #1
Creating the group project out of strong Emotions
- Emotional Ingredient #2
Giving people ways to act on their beliefs
- Emotional Ingredient #3
Appealing to the emotions of the people who are investing or donating money
- Emotional Ingredient #4
Giving people a reason to trust
- Emotional Ingredient #5
Creating fun for everyone who participates
- Relationship Ingredient #3
Redefining relationships by passing power
- Relationship Ingredient #4
Renewing relationships for everyone who participates
- Relationship Ingredient #5
Nurturing the relationships other people have with themselves